RULES & REGULATIONS

Cooperative living requires that each owner regulate the occupancy and use of his unit and the common elements so as not to unreasonably or unnecessarily disturb any other resident in the occupancy and use of his unit. With this in mind, the following Rules and Regulations have been established by Isle of Paradise D, Inc. ("The White House") to protect the owners' right to the quiet enjoyment of his property.

These Rules and Regulations are a compilation of previous Rules and Regulations. All other Rules and Regulations in your possession are no longer valid.

COMMON ELEMENTS

1. As per the Florida Clean Air Act, there is absolutely no smoking allowed in all enclosed areas in order to preserve the public health, comfort and environment. If a person fails to comply, he/she will be subject to fines provided by Florida Law and enforcement action as may be provided by law.
2. Common elements shall not be obstructed, littered or misused in any manner.
3. Children are not allowed to play in hallways, stairwells or elevators. Children under 14 years of age must be supervised at all times and accompanied by an adult.
4. No unit owner or occupant of a unit shall post any advertisement or posters of any kind on the exterior of the unit or balcony.
5. No one is permitted to interfere with or give directions to maintenance personnel or employees of the companies providing service to the Association. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the office in writing.
6. There will be no skateboards, roller blades or roller skates worn or bicycles ridden inside the buildings. They must be carried outside the common areas before using.
7. Bicycles may not be stored in the hallways or stairwells, per fire code. A bicycle rack is provided for leaseHolder bicycles and located in the west tower.
8. Removal and/or defacing of public notices is strictly prohibited as they are intended for informational purposes to all residents.
9. Do not feed the pigeons, cats or other animals. They are not domesticated and you will remove their natural feeding instincts.

MAINTENANCE OF UNITS AND OCCUPANCY

ISLE OF PARADISE RECREATION BOARD PARKING RULES

After reviewing parking rules under our corporation document and leases and in keeping with past practice and policies regarding the use of cooperative property, we wish to clarify parking regulation of our community parking spaces.

1. Parking spots are for use of unit owners, authorized renters and guests for parking of his/her personal use vehicle.
2. Assignment of each unit owner spot, maintenance and enforcement of Rules & Regulations for said spots are the responsibility of each building.
3. The Recreation Board retains responsibility for regulating use, maintenance and enforcement of 'guest' spots.
4. Only personal use vehicles belonging to authorized guests may be parked in 'guest' spots.
5. Trailers, campers on trailers and boats on trailers are not permitted in guest parking spots.
6. No parking is allowed on grassy areas.
7. Any illegally parked vehicle, boat on trailer or trailed camper will be towed immediately at owner's expense as per towing sign at entrance to community.

We believe observance of the rules promotes and maintains the orderly control and appearance of our community and we thank you for your cooperation.
